candidates for clients in the architecture, engineering, environmental and construction industries.

A graduate of the University of California, Davis, Johnson began his professional career at URS Corporation—one of the world's largest international multidisciplinary engineering firms—and later joined a large national staffing firm, where as its nationally-recognized best producer, he quickly climbed to the top of his profession. After an exceptional career in the corporate world, Johnson decided to pursue his dream of owning and operating a successful business. This courageous leap has yielded impressive results, as he now leads a thriving company that has seen a growth in revenue of more than 387 percent. As such, The Johnson Group, Inc., serves over 60 companies throughout northern California and has secured over 15 national agreements. The company has also placed over 75 industry professionals and 90 percent of its business comes from repeat clients.

Despite the undisputed achievements of The Johnson Group, Inc., the humble but eager man helming the entire enterprise maintains a diligent work ethic. "There is so much more to do, so many more clients to serve; I feel that we are just getting started," says Johnson, who confidently asserts that 2008 will be his company's biggest year to date. His ambitious plans include growing the staff, expanding into a second office, and opening a healthcare division to service the ever-growing demand for its industry professionals. "The opportunities are endless," Johnson adds. "We just have to stay focused on providing the highest level of service to our clients and candidates. When you focus on serving, you will always be blessed."

Johnson attributes this remarkable success to his faith in God, the support of his family, and his dedicated staff. "I am only as good as the team that supports me," he says. "Fortunately, I am confident that I have the best team in the business." Johnson resides with his wife and high school sweetheart Shawna, and their three kids, Christopher, 9, Josiah, 4, and newborn Chloe.
